Beverages and Refreshments:

All-natural snacks, like granola bars, popcorn, and fresh fruit, will be available at different locations around campus.

Lunch on Campus:

There are several options for dining on campus. You can find lunch and organized talks at the McNulty Room and the Aspen Meadows Restaurant. Start your own lunchtime dialogue at the Marble Garden Tent, Paepcke Tent, or Ideas Pavilion. Quick bites are available at the Let's Be Frank food carts, where all-natural hotdogs are served. The Mayer Courtyard Café is stocked with snacks, treats and drinks. Or, grab a picnic blanket at any of the outdoor venues and enjoy lunch outside. In town, buffet-style lunch will be served at many of our venues. Enjoy your meal in comfortable dining areas while listening to compelling Ideas Festival conversations.

ATTIRE AND ALTITUDE

Aspen is a walking city situated nearly 8,000 feet above sea level. (See Tips for Getting Adjusted to the Altitude). Cool evenings and afternoon thundershowers are common. Highs can be in the 80s, with lows in the 50s. We recommend layering and bringing a light jacket. Festival attendees dress comfortably, yet professionally. Comfortable walking shoes are essential.
